CONSENT TO PUBLICATION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Your child may appear in school photographs, photographs where your child is in the background of the image or wide shots where it is not practicable to identify every student before taking the photograph (e.g. at sports carnivals), whether or not you give consent here. Similarly your child’s personal information may appear on their school identification card. The School will never identify a student by name in photographs published online without express consent.

The School cannot control the actions of students, parents or others in relation to the publication of images. However, it is contrary to the school’s ethos for images or film taken of students participating in school activities to be publicly displayed (including social media) without prior permission of that student’s parents or guardians.

Please indicate whether or not you consent to the publication of certain personal information about your child (including their image or samples of their work) in the following circumstances.

1. Publication of the student’s name and samples of the student’s work, with their consent, as part of any printed school publication, such as the newsletter or yearbook and online publication (including social media).

☐ ☑ YES, I/we consent to this    ☐ ☑ NO, I/we do not consent to this

2. Photography, filming and interviewing the student and providing their full name, school and age for publication by newspapers, radio television and online in stories about education and school activities.

☐ ☑ YES, I/we consent to this    ☐ ☑ NO, I/we do not consent to this

3. Publication of images of the student or samples of their work in printed or online materials or advertising (including newspaper advertising and television commercials) produced by the School, the Tasmanian Catholic Education Office or the Archdiocese of Hobart. The School will never identify a student by full name in images published online without express consent.
